

MARYLAND CAPITOL POLICE
EYEWITNESS RECORD

PHOTO ARRAY & LINE-UP INSTRUCTIONS

1. You are being asked to view a set of photographs or group of people.
 - a. You will be viewing them one at a time in random order.
 - b. Please look at all of them. I am required to show you the entire series.
 - c. Please make a decision about each photograph or person before moving on to the next one.
2. You should remember that it is just as important to clear innocent persons from suspicion as it is to identify a guilty person.
3. The person who you saw on the date in question may or may not be one of the people you are about to view.
4. The individuals you view may not appear exactly as they did on the date of the incident, because features such as head and facial hair are subject to change.
5. Regardless of whether or not you select someone, the MCP will continue to investigate the incident.
6. If you select someone, the procedure requires me to ask you to state, in your own words and without using a numeric scale, how certain you are.
7. If you select someone, please do not ask me questions about the person you have selected; no information can be shared with you at this stage of the investigation.
8. Please do not discuss this procedure with any witnesses or the media.
9. Do you have any questions before we begin?
