

MARYLAND CAPITOL POLICE
FIELD TRAINING & EVALUATION PROGRAM
PROBATIONARY OFFICER'S EVALUATION OF FTO

In an effort to ensure that the field-training officer maintains a high level of skills, performance, and interest, this critique form is presented to the probationary patrol officer for completion. It is to the training officer's benefit to know the impression that he/she is making on those being trained. It is the belief of the department, the FTO who is truly interested in doing their best, would welcome this type of feedback. With this in mind, the probationary patrol officer is requested to honestly appraise and evaluate the FTO in the areas listed below.

1. In your opinion, what percentage of effort did your F.T.O exert to you: (up to 100 percent)

Training: _____ Evaluation: _____

Explanation: _____

2. Ability as a police officer?

Poor	Fair	Average	Above Average	Excellent
Comments	_____

3. Example set for you?

Poor	Fair	Average	Above Average	Excellent
Comments	_____

4. Interest in imparting training materials and information to you?

Poor	Fair	Average	Above Average	Excellent
Comments	_____

5. Knowledge of the training material covered?

Poor	Fair	Average	Above Average	Excellent
Comments	_____

6. Skill as an instructor/teacher/trainer?

Poor	Fair	Average	Above Average	Excellent
Comments	_____

MARYLAND CAPITOL POLICE
FIELD TRAINING & EVALUATION PROGRAM
PROBATIONARY OFFICER'S EVALUATION OF FTO

7. Ability to communicate with you?

Poor Fair Average Above Average Excellent
Comments

8. Application of honesty, fairness, and objectivity in rating you?

Poor Fair Average Above Average Excellent
Comments

9. Overall attitude for the work being done?

Poor Fair Average Above Average Excellent
Comments

10. The area(s) in which you think your F.T.O. puts forth the best effort?

Poor Fair Average Above Average Excellent
Comments

11. The area(s) in which you think your F.T.O. puts forth the least effort?

Poor Fair Average Above Average Excellent
Comments

Probationary Patrol Officer's Signature

Date